Item 6 Supervision

Supervisor:

Title:

Phone Number:

As President & CEO of C.H. Dean, LLC Mr. Miller is not supervised by any one person and is ultimately responsible for oversight of the business activities of the firm and reports directly to the Board. Accordingly, Dean Investments and Dean Financial Services have adopted written policies and procedures which are designed to set standards and internal controls for the firm, its employees, and its businesses and are also reasonably designed to detect and prevent violations of regulatory requirements and the firm's policies and procedures. Every employee and manager is required to be responsible for and monitor those individuals and departments he or she supervises to detect, prevent and report any activities inconsistent with the firm's procedures, policies, high professional standards, or legal/regulatory requirements. Portfolio management is based on investment style. All portfolios are managed in accordance with the policy portfolio for the applicable style. A real-time update of security and portfolio valuation is built into the policy portfolio spreadsheet for each strategy and is reviewed daily by each portfolio manager. Additionally, a portfolio positioning and performance analysis is completed each quarter relative to the respective benchmark. Trading is actively monitored by both the portfolio manager and trading team.

Item 2 Educational Background and Business Experience

- C.H. Dean, LLC; Financial Consultant; from January 1993 to October 1994

Designations

Beth J. Verdoorn has earned the following designation(s) and is in good standing with the granting authority:

- Certified Public Accountant; Ohio Society of CPA's; 1995

This program is administered by The Ohio Society of CPA's. In order to become a CPA in the United States, the candidate must sit for and pass the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination, which is set by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and administered by the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy. Eligibility to sit for the Uniform CPA Exam is determined by individual State Boards of Accountancy. Typically the requirement is a U.S. bachelor's degree which includes a minimum number of qualifying credit hours in accounting and business administration with an additional 1 year study. All CPA candidates must pass the Uniform CPA Examination to qualify for a CPA certificate and license (i.e., permit to practice) to practice public accounting. CPAs are required to take continuing education courses in order to renew their license. Requirements vary by state. The vast majority of states require 120 hours of CPE every 3 years with a minimum of 20 hours per calendar year. The requirement can be fulfilled through attending live seminars, webcast seminars, or through self-study (textbooks, videos, online courses, all of which require a test to receive credit). As part of the CPE requirement, most states require their CPAs to take an ethics course during every renewal period. Ethics requirements vary by state, and the courses range from 2-8 hours.

- Certified Financial Planner; Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc.; 2000

The program is administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates complete studies on over 100 topics, including stocks, bonds, taxes, insurance, retirement planning and estate planning. In addition to passing the CFP certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards and complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years.
